Join My Sistahz Keeper and the WISE Women's Center in celebrating Women's History Month and come experience a powerful message from Leslie Morris. A native of Long Branch, the author of "How Ya Like Me Now!" will recount her personal journey as an at-risk youth growing up in Seaview Manor, one of Long Branch, New Jersey's public housing projects. She also shares her inspiring story detailing how she overcame great odds and later earned a Bachelor's degree from prestigious Simmons College in Boston, followed by two Masters Degrees, the first in Clinical Social Work from Boston College, and the second in Public Health, with a concentration in maternal and child health from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
